

Uncommon stability in uncertain times

[Music begins]

Pat McEvoy: Hi, I'm Pat McEvoy, President and CEO of ONESCO.

I'm very excited to talk to you about what makes our broker dealer special and why ONESCO truly stands out among the rest.

ONESCO is a broker dealer with a 50-year history of delivering uncommon stability in uncertain times.

Many broker dealers have undergone tremendous upheaval and changes, but it's in times like these when businesses like yours need continuity and stability.

We're a firm that evolves, adapting to a changing environment in a positive way, looking to the future to find new ways to provide service and support to our advisors.

For decades, ONESCO has taken pride in partnering with our representatives to build lasting relationships, while fostering the entrepreneurship and independence that is vital to your business' success.

This can only happen with a strong and stable broker dealer partner behind what you do.

ONESCO's philosophy has allowed us to build one of the most competitive and unique broker dealer platforms in the industry today, including...

A comprehensive and flexible product platform, whether you are offering advisory services or traditional products.

The latest technology and support to help you run an efficient business.

An operations group dedicated to successful outcomes and superior service.

And, a compliance team who "gets it" and understands that their job is to make a complicated world simpler.

Has our industry encountered some headwinds?

Absolutely.

However, our team is very optimistic about the future and we're committed to ensuring that our representatives are well positioned to grow and prosper.

We passionately believe that we're all in this together, and if you value stability and continuity, entrepreneurship and independence, personalized, superior service, and an unmatched platform of tools and products, then, let's have a conversation.
